Seattle Transportation Benefit District Governing Board holds public hearing on vehicle licensing fee options

SEATTLE – The Seattle City Council, acting in its capacity as the Seattle Transportation Benefit District \(STBD\) Governing Board, will hold a public hearing for residents to provide feedback on the specific investment package proposals, contributing to the continued discussion on Seattle's possible vehicle licensing fee:

WHEN: Wednesday, August 10, 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Council Chambers, Seattle City Hall, Second Floor
600 Fourth Ave, Seattle WA 98104

WHAT: Public hearing on vehicle licensing fee options

The Governing Board will meet again on August 16 at 11 a.m. where they will decide whether to place a vehicle licensing fee on the November ballot.

For more information and meeting agendas, visit Seattle Transportation Benefit District web site.

In September 2010, the Seattle City Council created CTAC III through Resolution 31240. The STBD Board will receive guidance and advice from CTAC III about how to spend the existing $20 Vehicle License Fee (VLF). CTAC III will also provide advice on whether to seek voter approval for as much as an additional $80 VLF and/or other fees that would require voter approval. CTAC III's recommendation matrix is attached.
